

HOUSING BARCELONA

MGEM INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS COHORT 2014-2015

There are two basic options in housing in Barcelona, one is renting an apartment for a few months second one is a student residence. Prices and services included depend on the live style chosen by the student. We offer a list about the most used by IQS international students which has had good comments.

Barcelona is not a big city, so in maximum 40 minutes in public transportations you can reach anyplace.

Any election please asks for special conditions for IQS or group students. Some of them have better conditions. These contracts are renewed every year. Any doubt or comment does not hesitate to contact with Ricardo Ubeda (ricardo.ubeda@iqs.edu).

If some of you wants to ask as a group is possible to get some additional discounts. If you want, I can ask for price group.

2.3 BHSS Barcelona

This is a web that looks for apartments, or residences, or family who rents a room, or look for roommates if you need them. It is a service for crating the contact not a residence or an apartment. It is the most used by international students.

If you prefer to find the apartment by your own, there's no problem too, there's lots of websites to find accommodations in Barcelona. In this case, you may use the Barcelona subway map as a guide to know if the accommodation is settled in a good area or not.

It's very important to find an apartment near to a subway station, because the subway is faster than bus. The best lines to live are the red, blue and some parts of the green line. The zone near IQS is nice, but it is usually much more expensive.

Barcelona in general is a safe city, and there isn't any dangerous area. However, we don't recommend students to live at the downtown. The well-known areas of Las Ramblas, El Born, El Gotic, etc. are really nice to walk around, but they are very tourists and noisy. So, it's better not to live there. The other zones of Barcelona that I don't mention are fine, but too far from IQS.
