

MGEM Certification of Finances – J-1 and F-1 Student Visas

2015-2016 Estimated Total Costs for International Master of Global Entrepreneurial Management (MGEM) Graduate Students

The total costs listed here are based on typical full-time course loads. U.S. immigration policies require that you provide the University of San Francisco certification of adequate financial resources to meet all expenses. Please select from the following estimated student budgets to determine total costs for your MGEM program.

	Summer 2016 (Enrolled through FJU or IQS)	Summer 2016 (Enrolled through USF)	Full Program 2015-2016

The cost estimates above are based on your tuition rate and the length of your Certificate of Eligibility (I-20 or DS-2019).

Living Expenses include room (housing), board (food) and health insurance. All international students are automatically enrolled in the USF student health insurance plan. Please visit usfca.edu/hps for student health insurance details and possible exemptions.

Possible additional expenses not included in the above estimated total costs:

- a) Transportation between and within countries.
- b) Dependents (spouse and/or children). Please inquire to somadmission@usfca.edu for details.

Please Note: Projected funds for your studies in the U.S. should not include possible work opportunities during your program at USF. While students are eligible to work on-campus at USF, the income should be viewed as minimal and not guaranteed.
